GENCO RESOURCES LTD.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the three months ended March 31, 2007

(Expressed in Canadian dollars)

1. Introduction

Genco Resources Ltd., (the "Company") was incorporated under the laws of the Province of British Columbia on February 29, 1980 as Senlac Oil & Gas Ltd. The Company changed its name to Rule Resources Ltd. on June 13, 1980, to Globe Resources Inc. on March 9, 1990, and to Genco Resources Ltd. on March 30, 1998.

Effective August 1, 2003 the Company acquired all of the issued and outstanding shares of La Guitarra Compania Minera S.A. de C.V. ("La Guitarra"). The purchase price for the acquisition was $5,000,000 USD with consideration being a combination of the issuance of shares and debt. Under the purchase agreement and as part of the consideration, the Company issued 1,380,315 shares valued at $1.02 CAD per share to the vendor to satisfy $1,000,000 USD of the purchase price. The Company agreed to pay the balance of $4,000,000 USD by payments of $500,000 USD, payable in cash or shares at the Company's option, on each of the first through eighth anniversaries of the closing date. On September 22, 2004 the Company issued 790,427 shares valued at $0.82 CAD for the first instalment payment to the vendor. On September 1, 2005 and 2006 the Company made the second and third instalment payments of $500,000 USD each in cash. La Guitarra is now a wholly owned subsidiary and is incorporated under the laws of Mexico.

The Company is engaged in silver and gold mining and related activities including exploration, extraction, processing and reclamation. The Company has mining operations in Mexico and owns exploration projects in the United States and Canada.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles applicable to a going concern and reflect the policies below.

a) Basis of Presentation

These consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the parent company and its wholly owned subsidiaries, Rule Nevada Inc., La Guitarra Compania Minera, S.A. de C.V. and Servicios para la Industria Minera, S.A. de C.V. All significant inter-company accounts and transactions have been eliminated.

The Company is in the process of exploring, developing, and operating mineral properties and has yet to determine whether some of the properties contain economically recoverable reserves. The recovery of amounts shown for resource properties and related assets are dependent on the existence of economically recoverable reserves, on the ability of the Company to obtain financing to complete development, and on future profitable operations.

b) Cash

Cash consists of deposits in the bank and highly liquid investments with an original maturity of 90 day or less.

GENCO RESOURCES LTD.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the three months ended March 31, 2007

(Expressed in Canadian dollars)

c) Share Option Plan

As of August 1, 2002, the Company adopted the standard of the CICA Handbook, Stock-Based Compensation and Other Stock-Based Payments, which has been applied prospectively. All stock-based awards made to non-employees and employees are recognized and measured using the fair value based method at the date of grant. The Company uses the Black-Scholes model to estimate fair value.

d) Inventory

Inventory is valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined on an average cost basis. Concentrate inventory includes all direct costs of extracting the ore, direct labour, and all indirect pro-rated costs associated with operating La Guitarra mine.

e) Property, Plant, and Equipment

Property, plant, and equipment are recorded at cost. Amortization is provided for as follows:

Straight line:
Automotive equipment	25.00 %
Buildings	5.00 %
Computer equipment	30.00 %
Furniture and fixtures	10.00 %
Leasehold improvements	20.00 %
Mine equipment	12.00 %
Mine infrastructure	Unit of production basis
Declining balance:
Computer equipment	30.00 % to 45.00 %
Office equipment	20.00 %

Significant costs related to property acquisitions including undeveloped mineral interests are capitalized until the viability of the mineral interest is determined. The costs are capitalized until such time that it has been determined that a mineral deposit is commercially recoverable and a decision has been made to prepare a mining plan (which occurs upon completion of a positive economic analysis of the mineral deposit). Major development expenditures incurred to expose the ore, increase production or extend the life of an existing mine are capitalized. Capitalized costs are amortized over the life of the mineral interest once commercial mining of the mineral interest has commenced. Capitalized costs are written down to their estimated recoverable amount if the properties are determined to be uneconomic or are placed for sale.

Interest and finance costs relating to the construction of plant and equipment are capitalized prior to the commencement of commercial production of a new mine. Depletion of the mine properties is charged on a unit of production basis over the estimated useful life of the mine.

GENCO RESOURCES LTD.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the three months ended March 31, 2007

(Expressed in Canadian dollars)

e) Property, Plant, and Equipment (continued)

Evaluations of the carrying values of each operation and development property are undertaken in each reporting period to determine if estimated undiscounted future net cash flows are less than the carrying value. Estimated undiscounted future net cash flows are calculated using estimated production sales prices and operating costs, capital costs and reclamation and closure costs. If it is determined that the future net cash flows from an operation or development property are less than the carrying value a write down is recorded with a charge to operations.

f) Foreign Currency Translation

The Company's functional and reporting currency is the Canadian dollar. Foreign currency monetary assets and liabilities are translated into Canadian dollars at the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date. Non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated using the rate of exchange at the transaction date. Foreign currency transactions are translated at the Canadian dollar rate prevailing on the transaction dates. Foreign exchange gains and losses are included in the determination of earnings.

g) Earnings (Loss) Per Share

Basic earnings (loss) per share are computed using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings (loss) per share amounts are calculated giving effect to the potential dilution that would occur if securities or other contracts to issue common shares were exercised or converted to common shares using the treasury stock method. The treasury stock method assumes that proceeds received from the exercise of stock options and warrants are used to redeem common shares at the prevailing market value.

h) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying disclosures. Although these estimates are based on management's best knowledge of current events and actions the company may undertake in the future, actual results may differ from the estimates.

i) Revenue Recognition

Revenue from the sale of metals is recognized in the accounts when title and risk passes to the buyer, collection is reasonably assured and the price is reasonably determinable. Revenue from the sale of metals may be subject to adjustment upon final settlement of estimated metal prices, weights and assays. Adjustments to revenue for metal prices are recorded monthly and other adjustments are recorded on final settlement.

GENCO RESOURCES LTD.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the three months ended March 31, 2007

(Expressed in Canadian dollars)

2. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

j) Exploration and Development Expenditures and Mineral Properties

Significant property acquisition costs and exploration and development expenditures are capitalized. Capitalized costs are written down to their estimated recoverable amount if the properties are determined to be uneconomic, abandoned, or are placed for sale.

Although the Company has taken steps to verify title to mineral properties in which it has an interest, according to usual industry standards for the stage of exploration on such properties, these procedures do not guarantee the Company's title. Such properties may be subject to prior agreements or transfers and title may be affected by undetected defects.

k) Income Taxes

The provision for income taxes is based on the liability method. Future taxes arise from the recognition of the tax consequences of temporary differences by applying enacted or substantively enacted tax rates applicable to future years to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and the tax bases of certain assets and liabilities. The Company records a valuation allowance against any portion of those future income tax assets that it believes will, more likely than not, fail to be realized.

l) Provision for Reclamation and Closure

On January 1, 2003, the Company adopted the standard of the CICA Handbook, Asset Retirement Obligations, which requires that the fair value of liabilities for asset retirement obligations be recognized in the period in which they are incurred. A corresponding increase to the carrying amount of the related assets is generally recorded and depreciated over the life of the asset. The amount of the liability is subject to re-measurement at each reporting date. Reclamation and closure costs have been estimated based on the Company's interpretation of current regulatory requirements.

3. Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, loans from related parties, prepaid expenses and deposits, investments, and long term debt. Unless otherwise noted, it is management's opinion that the Company is not exposed to significant interest, currency, or credit risks arising from these financial instruments. The fair values of the financial instruments other than long term debt approximate their carrying values, unless otherwise noted.

Long term debt consists of a non-interest bearing promissory note of $2,500,000 USD (December 31, 2006 - $2,500,000 USD). This debt has been recorded at its fair value based on equal payments of $500,000 USD over 8 years starting August 1, 2004 and discounted at 5% per annum.

7. Related Party Transactions

During the three month period ended March 31, 2007, the Company paid $131,424 in consulting and management fees to directors and officers (March 31, 2006 - $72,000). As at March 31, 2007, there are no amounts owing to directors and officers of the Company included in accounts payable (December 31, 2006: $14,035).

During the three month period ended March 31, 2007, directors and officers of the Company exercised options to purchase 260,072 shares at prices ranging from $0.80 to $0.85 per share and paid $218,561. In addition, directors and officers of the Company exercised 10,700 share purchase warrants at a price of $0.90 each and paid $9,630.

8. Long Term Debt

Pursuant to the acquisition of La Guitarra the Company agreed to pay $4,000,000 USD ($5,318,000 CAD) to the vendor to satisfy the balance of the purchase price. The debt bears no interest, is unsecured, and is repayable by instalments of $500,000 USD on each of the first through eighth anniversaries of the closing date. The outstanding instalment due in August 2007 is $588,850 CAD and is recorded as a current liability.

The debt has been discounted for financial reporting purposes to its fair value. The rate used to discount the debt to its fair value was 5% which was based on the cost of borrowing of similar companies for the same purpose.

a) Options

The Company has established a share purchase option plan whereby the Company's directors may from time to time grant options to directors, employees or consultants. The maximum term of any option may be ten years, but generally options are granted for five years or less. Compensation expense is determined using an option pricing model assuming no dividends are to be paid, a weighted average volatility of the Company's share price ranging from 49% to 65%, an annual risk free interest rate ranging from 4.00% to 4.25% and vesting over various periods from immediately to 5 years. The fair value of the stock options ranged from $0.40 to $1.18 per stock option.

17. Recent Accounting Pronouncements

This Section details recent accounting pronouncements that impact these and future financial statements.

a) Financial Instruments – Recognition and Measurement, Section 3855

In 2005, the CICA issued Section 3855, Financial Instruments, Recognition and Measurement. This Section establishes guidelines for recognizing and measuring financial assets, financial liabilities, and non-financial derivatives. The following four fundamental decisions serve as cornerstones underlying this Section:

- i) financial instruments and non-financial derivatives represent rights or obligations that meet the definition of assets or liabilities and should be reported in the financial statements;
- ii) fair value is the most relevant measure for financial instruments and the only relevant measure for derivative financial instruments;
- iii) only items that are assets or liabilities should be reported as such in financial statements; and
- iv) special accounting for items designated as being part of a hedging relationship should be provided only for qualifying items.

The mandatory effective date for the new Section is for interim and annual financial statements relating to fiscal years beginning on or after October 1, 2006. Management does not expect the adoption of this standard to have a material effect on the Company's financial position and results of operation.

17. Recent Accounting Pronouncements (continued)

a) Financial Instruments – Recognition and Measurement, Section 3855 (continued)

During 2005, the CICA also issued Section 3861, Financial Instruments – Disclosure and Presentation. This section establishes standards for presentation of financial instruments and non-financial derivatives, and identifies the information that should be disclosed about them. The presentation paragraphs deal with the classification of financial instruments, from the perspective of the issuer, between liabilities and equity, the classification of related interest, dividends, losses and gains, and the circumstances in which financial assets and financial liabilities are offset. The disclosure paragraphs deal with information about factors that affect the amount, timing and certainty of an entity's future cash flows relating to financial instruments, the business purposes they serve, the risks associated with them and management's policies for controlling these risks. This Section applies to interim and annual financial statements relating to fiscal years beginning on or after October 1, 2006. Management does not expect the adoption of this standard to have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial position and results of operations.

b) Hedges, Section 3865

This standard is applicable when a company chooses to designate a hedging relationship for accounting purposes. It builds on the existing Accounting Guideline 13 (AcG-13), Hedging Relationships and Section 1650, Foreign Currency Translation, by specifying how hedge accounting is applied and what disclosures are necessary when it is applied.

c) Comprehensive Income, Section 1530

This standard introduces new rules for the reporting and display of comprehensive income. Comprehensive income represents a change in shareholders' equity (net assets) of an enterprise during a reporting period from transactions and other events and circumstances from non-owner sources. It includes all changes in equity during a period except those resulting from investments by owners and distributions to owners. These items include holding gains and losses on certain investments, gain and losses on certain derivative investments, and foreign currency gains and losses related to self-sustaining foreign operations. The Company does not believe that it will have any comprehensive income when it adopts this standard commencing January 1, 2007.
